The Committee on Book and Periodicals submitted their report. Adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee having carefully considered the interest referred to them, beg leave to offer the following as their report:

Resolved, 1st. That the success of the plan adopted by the Book Committee for the relief of our Publishing House is most gratifying to us.

2nd. That we urge our people to buy, circulate and read our own books published there.

3rd. That the Nashville Advocate, edited by Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald, D. D., the organ of our general Conference, is every way worthy of its position, and that we will give it our hearty endorsement and liberal patronage.

Resolved, That we are gratified with the success which has attended the Quarterly Review, during the first year of its publication; and that an expression of appreciation is due from the Church to Rev. J. W. Hinton, D. D., for the able and successful manner in which he has performed his work as its Editor, and the same is hereby tendered by the North Carolina Conference.

2nd. That we regard the Review as an important factor in the literature of our Church, and we hereby pledge it our sympathy and support.

Resolved, That we hail with peculiar pleasure the early forthcoming of the work edited by the Rev. J. O. A. Clark, D. D., LL. D. of the South Georgia Conference, entitled the Wesley Memorial Volume.

And that both, on account of the noble cause in the interest of which it is published, and of the fine array of American, English and French writers, which it presents, bespeak for it in advance, the cordial and liberal favor of the people.

That, having learned with pleasure, by a communication, from Rev. W. S. Black, and F. L. Reid, Editors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, that that paper has largely increased its circulation during the past year, a good omen of future prosperity and usefulness, we recommend its continuance as the organ of our Conference, and earnestly urge all of our people to rally its support, that the Editors may make it what they desire and all that the interests of the Church demand.

Resolved, That we request the Bishop to continue the Rev. W. S. Black, and Rev. F. L. Reid as Editors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate.

Your committee would call special attention to the Southern Missionary Herald, published monthly at Raleigh, N. C., with Rev. A. R. Raven, of our Conference, as Editor, and Rev. H. T. Hudson, D. D., Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D., of our Conference, and Rev. S. A. Steele, of the Mississippi Conference, as Corresponding Editors, as a neat, well printed and ably edited paper, of 8 pages, 12x16 inches in size, containing 29 columns of excellent reading, giving varied and valuable information in regard to the progress and results of Missionary operations throughout the world; and as it is the only Periodical of the kind published in the Southern Methodist Church, in the interest of Missions, we most heartily recommend it, not only as worthy of the patronage of the people within the bounds of our own Conference, but throughout the connection.

R. S. WEBB, Chairman.

Dr. McFerrin addressed the Conference, and solicited donations to aid the Publishing House.

Question 1st was again taken,—“Who are received on trial?”

Samuel P. Douglas, of Hillsboro Station; Joseph D. Arnold, of Jonesboro Circuit; Wm. S. Hales, of Tryon Street Church; Franklin J. Hoke, of South Fork Circuit, were received on trial.

On motion of Dr. Closs, it was resolved that when we adjourn, we will adjourn to meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Conference then adjourned with the benediction by the Bishop.

AFTERNOON SESSION, Saturday, Dec. 6.

Conference met at 3 o'clock, P. M., W. S. Black in the Chair by appointment of the Bishop; and was opened with religious service conducted by T. W. Guthrie.

The Committee on Sunday Schools submitted their report, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Among the moral forces at work to bring the world to Christ, the Sunday School stands in the front rank. It is only less efficient than the preaching of the Gospel, and the revival system of our Church. The Church in all its branches, has come to regard the Sunday School as indispensable to the progress of religion.—It is a most happy augury that S. Schools are daily multiplying, and the intelligence, culture, experience, and piety of the Church are being brought more and more into requisition to further Sunday School work.

We record these facts with profound gratitude; and rejoice at the growth and great success of the Sunday School movement;—still, the Sunday School, as an organization, has not been perfected; and therefore, has not attained to greatest efficiency. As the organization grows more and more into a perfected system, and concentrates the age, sanctified culture, and wisdom of the Church, upon Sunday School work, what glorious results may we not predict!

Your Committee ask that the ministers of the different charges bring our Sunday School literature more and more before the people. As a Committee, we heartily endorse the Sunday School literature of our Church, and recommend the introduction of this literature into all our Sunday Schools. Here the Committee desire to offer their earnest protest against any action looking to the disuse of our excellent catechisms. Let them, by all means, be used in the Schools.

Your Committee offer no encouragement to the forming of Union schools, but earnestly call upon pastors and people to put forth all reasonable exertions to establish schools in each neighborhood, where ten persons can be brought together.

We further recommend that Missionary Societies be formed in connection with our Schools, and suggest the introduction of the Missionary Herald, published by Rev. A. R. Raven, as a valuable auxiliary to this end.

Respectfully submitted:

JOS. WHEELER, Chm'n.

The report from the Committee on the Bible Cause was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

Your Committee beg leave to report that as a body of ministers, we regard with increased interest the great work in which the American Bible Society is engaged, the dissemination of the Holy Scriptures; Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we will gladly co-operate with the Agent of the American Bible Society for this State, whenever he shall visit our fields of labor; and we invite him to come among us; and if impracticable for him to visit our charges in person, we request him to secure the services of some reliable person to do so in his stead.

2. That we request the Agent for this State to use all diligence to put the Bible in every household in the State, at the earliest day.

3. That we request our people to contribute liberally of their means to the furtherance of this great Christian enterprise; the dissemination of the Holy Scriptures.

S. SHELL, Chm'n.

Report No. 1 from the Committee on Education was presented and made the order of the day for 10 o'clock on Monday.

The report of the Committee on Memoirs was read, and after remarks by several of the members, was adopted.

[See Memorial pages.]

Question 10 was again taken up,—“What local preachers are elected deacons?”

William L. C. Killian was elected.

The Conference then adjourned with the benediction by W. S. Black.

Rev. W. M. D. Moore was born in S. C., near the city of Charleston, and died in Summerville, Brunswick Co., N. C., June 1st, 1879. His father died when he was an infant, and his mother soon followed her husband to the Better Land, leaving the subject of this Memoir—their only child—an orphan. His aunt took charge of and adopted him as her own. He was trained up by her in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. She gave him a good academic education. He was pious from childhood and so remarkable was his religious character that it was frequently remarked by those who were intimate with him; “if God ever called a man from the cradle to preach his Gospel, he called W. M. D. Moore.” He was received into the M. E. Church in the 14th year of his age. He joined the S. C. Conference and was ordained a deacon by Bishop Emory, in 1831, and an Elder by Bishop Andrew in 1834. He traveled several circuits in S. C., in his early ministry. In 1836 he was appointed to Brunswick circuit, N. C., and returned to the same field in 1837. Some time during this latter year he was happily married to Miss Elizabeth Hawkins, an estimable lady of Brunswick Co., N. C. In 1838 he was sent to the Walterboro circuit, S. C., and in 1839, to Greenville circuit, S. C. During this year his health failed, and he was superannuated at his own request, without claim on the Conference fund. He remained in this relation till 1857. By the action of the General Conference, in 1850, that part of North Carolina where he resided was transferred to the N. C. Conference, and he became a member of the North Carolina Conference. In 1857 and 1858, he traveled the Mattamuskeet Circuit. From 1859 till 1868 he was on the Supernumerary list, and resided in Smithville, N. C. In 1869 and 1870 he traveled the Whiteville circuit. 1871 he was sent to the Straits. In 1872, to Ocracoke. In 1873, to Salisbury circuit, and in 1874, to Wilkes. At the close of this year he was superannuated and remained in this relation until by the Great Head of the Church he was called home. As a man he was unselfish and sincere—as a Christian, sweet-spirited and devoted. He was emphatically a holy man, and a most devoted husband and affectionate father. He was a man of extensive reading, and had gathered a large fund of information which he labored to use for the edification of the Church, and the good of mankind. He was a sound, scriptural preacher and true to every trust committed to him. He was regarded as a kind of Patriarch in the town of Smithville, where he was long known and tenderly loved. His death was unexpected, and the struggle was only of a few minutes duration: “In the midst of life we are in death,” “Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” Bro. Moore’s consistent life affords us the most abundant evidence that he was ready. He leaves a wife and four children, with a host of friends to mourn his death. May the grace of God sustain the bereaved family, and may we all join him in the better world.

REV. JOHN JONES.

Rev. John Jones was born in Beaufort, N. C., Feb. 15th, 1810, and was born again at a Camp Meeting in August 1826. He was a man of fair education, secured by unwearied industry and application with little instruction at school. Following his convictions of duty, he was, in 1833, licensed to exhort, and a year or two later was commissioned as a local preacher, in which relation he exercised his gift about fourteen years. In 1850 he joined the North Carolina Conference and was assigned to the Straits Circuit, on which he remained two years, laboring with zeal and and great success. In 1853 he was on Topsail Circuit; 1854, Williamston. From 1855 to 1859, Presiding Elder of Atlantic District. After this he traveled several years doing effective work - then on account of debility he took a superannuated relation which he sustained till the time of his death. As a man he was highly esteemed and beloved; as a christian pure and upright; as a preacher he was plain, clear, persuasive and full of Divine unction. He lives in the memory and is embalmed in the hearts of the people among whom he labored in Eastern North Carolina. His death was preceeded by several weeks of painful illness, but he was patient, resigned and joyful; death to him had no terrors for he was ready. He calmly said: "I know in whom I have trusted." He left the world in triumph May 1st, 1879. Such a life is a legacy to the Church and a blessing to the world; such a death, gives assurance of God's presence and favor.

The report of the special Committee on the letter from the Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, was read and adopted as follows:—

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE IN REFERENCE TO THE COMMUNICATION FROM THE GRAND MASTER OF MASONS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Your Committee appointed to respond to the communication from the Grand Master of Masons upon the subject of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford, North Carolina, beg leave to report the following:

WHEREAS, This Conference is in hearty sympathy with the great charity known as the Oxford Orphan Asylum, and desiring to reiterate the great principles of benevolence which found, over a century ago, their highest human expression in the life of the great founder of Methodism; and, whereas, we regard the Orphan Asylum.

Wilson, N. C., Dec. 8th, 1879.

A letter was received from A. J. Stokes, Chairman of the Joint Board of Finance of the South Carolina Conference, asking this Conference to place on the roll of Conference claimants the names of Mrs. James Stacy, and a child of Rev. E. A. Lemmond.

On motion of W. H. Bobbitt the request was granted.

The Committee on Church Property reported, and the report was adopted as follows:—

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

While it is gratifying to note a marked improvement in the spirit of building and repairing Churches and Parsonages in some sections, yet there is not that advance that ought to be. It is evident, in many sections, our cause suffers for want of Churches and Parsonages; also from the fact that many of those we have are not in good and comfortable repair.

In 1878 there were 764 Churches. In 1879, 762—decrease of two. The number of Parsonages in 1878 was 70; in 1879, 73—an increase of three. The Church property in 1878 was valued at $790,560, in 1879, $734,345—a decrease of $56,215. The amount raised in 1878 for building and repairing Churches and Parsonages was $43,482.30; in 1879, $37,628.74—a decrease of $5,853.56. Of the ten Districts of the Conference there are only two that have parsonages—the Wilmington and Shelby—the Salisbury District having some money for this purpose, but no parsonage. And of the 151 pastoral charges only 73 have parsonages. Eight Presiding Elders and 78 Pastors have to board or pay house rent. Regarding it necessary to the greatest success of the Church, that it have comfortable houses of worship, and parsonages, your Committee would recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, That all pastors are urged to keep the subject of having commodious and comfortable Churches and parsonages, before the people, and to see that proper titles are secured and registered in the courts of their counties.

Resolved, That the trustees be instructed see that the Churches are used only for religious purposes.

Respectfully submitted, J. J. CARDEN, Chairman.

The report from the Committee on the communication from the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, was read, and after discussion and amendment was adopted thus:—

The committee appointed to consider the communication from the Grand Lodge of the Order of Good Templars, asking this Conference to memorialize our next Legislature to prohibit the sale of ardent spirits in North Carolina, recommend the adoption of the following:

WHEREAS, We believe the liquor traffic to be the great source of evil and crime, doing more to impede the material, intellectual and moral progress of our State than any other one thing, therefore,

Resolved 1st, That as a Conference we most respectfully request that those who may be honored with seats in our next Legislature, shall take into consideration the propriety of enacting a general prohibitory liquor law.

Resolved 2nd, That the Secretary of this Conference be requested to bring this action to the notice of our next General Assembly.

Report of the Committee on Education was taken up, a substitute was adopted for a part, and the whole adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee feel deeply the vast importance of sustaining our denominational schools. While piety sanctifies the heart, education develops and trains the mind as an instrument through whose agency Christianity achieves its grand success. Education then is a necessity to the spread and power of the Gospel. But it is hardly necessary to consume time in proving a fact so potent to all.

To relieve our colleges from pecuniary burdens is the vital question, for our body to consider at this time. Immediate relief has become an absolute necessity. And the Committee present the following plan to raise the needed $7,000 for the relief of TRINITY COLLEGE.—Resolved 1st, That it is the duty of the Methodists of the N. C. Conference to make a united effort to extend the patronage of Trinity College and to relieve it from debt during 1880. 2, That we request the Bishop to appoint the Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, Agent to accomplish this work, and that we pledge ourselves to give him all the aid we can. 3, That B. Craven, W. Closs, L. S. Burkhead, H. T. Hudson, E. A. Yates and J. S. Carr are hereby appointed an Advisory Committee, with whom the Agent shall confer, as to the best methods of operation.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.—Resolved 1, That we cordially recommend to the patronage of our people this cherished institution of learning. 2, That we as heretofore fully recognize the justice of the debt hanging over it, and feel morally bound to use all possible means to pay it. 3, That an Advisory Committee, consisting of W. H. Bobbitt, H. T. Hudson, D. R. Bruton, F. C. Robbins, and W. C. Doub, be appointed to devise the method of securing so much money as will be needed to hold the college in our possession till other means can be devised to pay the whole amount.

H. T. HUDSON, Chm'n.

The following was adopted:—

Resolved, That this Conference will endeavor to raise a sum for Missions equal to 20 cents for every member of our Church.

The publisher regrets that a few errors appear in the list of appointments. In Hillsboro District, J. B. Martin is pastor of Hay River; also, Hillsboro Station, J. H. Wheeler, pastor; Deep River, W. M. Jordan, pastor; and Pittsboro, T. J. Gattis, pastor, should appear in the list for Hillsboro District. In Charlotte District, Concord Station, H. P. Cole, pastor, should appear. J. O. STATISTICAL NOTES.

The publisher takes the liberty of inserting here the following additional statistics, as prepared and published in the Raleigh Advocate, a few weeks ago, by the Secretary of the Conference:

"The following are the results of the Conference work during the past year:— It is in many respects, the most successful year we have had. Our substantial progress has been great. There is one local preacher for 271 members, and one for every three Churches. Though our number of Sunday School scholars looks large, we have only a little over one for every two members, less than one Sunday School for each Church, an average of about 47 scholars to each Church. On the average, each effective preacher baptized 14 infants, and 24 adults; each had 5 Sabbath Schools, 246 scholars, served over five Churches, and increased the Church membership by 26, and all the members of Conference probably preached about 22,500 sermons, giving an increase of one member for a little over 4 sermons, each accession costing $34 to the Church. The whole membership paid $1,401.38 to the Bishop; $11,117.86 to Presiding Elders; $76,647.62 to pastors; $4,180.90 to superannuated preachers, widows, and orphans; $7,018.86 for missions; $1,327.41 to the poor; $5,936.30 to Sunday Schools; $37,628.74 for building and repairing Churches; $1,080.75 for education; $5,208.21 for incidentals; and $369.98 to the Bible cause. The whole sum paid during the past year is $151,699.79. This gives a general average of $2.28 per member, or over $3.00 to each who really paid, and 87 per cent. of all assessments. Washington District paid the largest sum to the Presiding Elder, Charlotte District the largest sum for pastors; Raleigh District the largest Conference collection, for missions and for Sunday Schools; Wilmington District the largest to the poor; Hillsboro District the largest for building and repairing Churches; Salisbury District the most for education. For all purposes, Hillsboro District paid more than any other by $2,000; Raleigh District paid $2.45 per member; Hillsboro, $3.47; Greensboro, $2.30; Salisbury, $1.75; Shelby, $1.64; Charlotte, $2.45; Fayetteville, $2.05; Wilmington, $2.03; Newberne, $2.84; Washington, $2.57. The average pay to the preachers is $573 each."
